

This station is a vital asset to me. I listen to this station at home and on the road. This is a station that is family friendly, uplifting and not offensive. The songs played have good morals attached to them. This community needs a positive noise from the radio dial and this station does an awesome job! Please ensure that this station remains as is.